

Merchant Services

Intrix is a relationship-based, industry tenured merchant services organization that values hard work, open communication and fair business practice. Our growth comes from partnerships with carefully selected resellers, vendors and partner sales offices who share these values. Our commitment is to maintaining the quality of our business by contributing 100% of our knowledge and resources to those who join us as partners.

Intrix offers agents and ISO's the most competitive reseller program in the industry today. Contact us for details on our aggressive revenue share models, signing bonuses, lead generation and social media programs. Intrix reseller programs include dedicated agent support managers and comprehensive online reporting.

Programs and Solutions

Intrix supports all card types including Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover. We accept any form of payment method, and give our customers the convenience and service they need. Businesses
